Sermon Notes

Jude 1:14 It was also about these that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of his holy ones, 15 to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against him."

16 These are grumblers, malcontents, following their own sinful desires; they are loud-mouthed boasters, showing favoritism to gain advantage. 17 But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. 18 They said to you, "In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions." 19 It is these who cause divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. ESV

For Reflection & Application:

Monday:

What are some examples of ideas that have crept into the Christian church that aren't biblical? From what sources do these ideas come?

Tuesday:

Read Jude 1:3 and 1:17. These verses contain the first two commands in the letter of Jude. What are the commands and how do they relate to one another?

Wednesday:

Read Jude 1:17-18 and 2 Timothy 3:1-5, 12-16. How do these two passages relate to one another? In the passage from 2 Timothy, to what extent do you see some things reflected in our culture and in the Christian church today? Why is this important?

Thursday:

Read John 2:17; Matthew 26:75; John 12:16; Luke 24:6-8; John 2:22; Acts 11:16; 2 Peter 3:2. What is the common theme, and why is it important?

Friday:

Reread Jude 1:17. Specifically, what could you do to better remember the words God gave to us?

Jude 1:17

But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ.
